Defendant admits to the charges and to being a national and citizen of Mexico with no papers that would allow him to enter this country legally. He has been ordered removed/deported from the United States back to Mexico on three occasions: 4/22/03; 12/23/09; 4/18/11. Yet on August 2, 2011, less than four months since his last order of deportation, Defendant was found at the intersection of 12 Mile and I-94 in St. Clair shores driving a vehicle when he was picked up on a traffic stop.

His criminal contacts include a Misdemeanor for Failure to Appear when charged with Admission of Immoral Acts for Purpose of Prostitution on 7/13/06; Misdemeanor for Failure to Appear on 11/16/06 for driving with a suspended sentence; Criminal Bench Warrant for Probation Violation for Driving with Suspended License (12/06/07); Operating While Impaired, 3/12/06; Operating With Suspended/Revoked License (6/15/06); Suspended License (9/406); ICE, Detroit (12/14/09); ICE Laredo, Texas (4/1/11).

Defendant was cited for 17 traffic violations between 2005 - 2009, including nine failures to comply with traffic court judgments, and four failures to appear for traffic court hearings.

Defendant poses a risk of non appearance due to the outstanding warrants which include previous failures to appear and comply with local court orders, a probation violation, and defendant's immigration status. Additionally, Defendant has had multiple removals and has an outstanding administrative warrant of removal pending.

This court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant poses a risk of non-appearance. There is no condition or combination of conditions which would assure this Defendant's appearance in court. Therefore Detention is Ordered.
